FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the City of St. Louis -Division of Budget stated that after consulting with the City Counselor's Office, officials assume this proposal would have no direct fiscal impact on the City. Officials assume since this proposal would exclude the City from state restrictions on enabling gun regulations, ordinances, etc., it is possible in the future that revenues could be generated from potential fees on firearms, but currently there would be no fiscal impact.

Oversight assumes no state fiscal impact.
